

The purpose of the Volunteer Reentry Coaching Program is to provide consistent, caring and stable re-entry coaches to guide, support, empower and encourage participants both prior to and after release from incarceration.

Is Re-entry Coaching for you?

As an individual begins their new life making healthy choices could you see yourself being a support while they seek a job; find temporary housing; or even registering for higher education?

Did you know:

96% of all individuals incarcerated will eventually return to the community.

From Prison to Community.

Visualize for a moment an image of small green dots spreading across a computer generated map of Broome County symbolizing those individuals moving back into our community from a NYS correctional facility. Now, imagine that there were no supports in place to help these individuals.

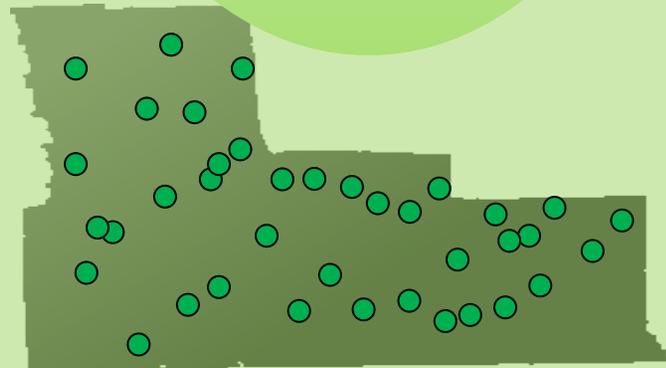

- Would you like to slow the rate of recidivism (the rate at which an individual returns to a correctional facility)?
- Could you see yourself as a positive role-model?

Did you know:

Prioritizing resources for individuals at moderate or high risk for reoffending can lead to a significant reduction in recidivism.

Volunteers are one of the key components to an individual's successful re-entry process.

As a coach you will be able to have a positive impact on a returning individual by being a positive role model; provide necessary supports through mentoring; help to (re) create a self-sufficient individual; and create a safer community by rebuilding lives.
