Hospital Ministry

Pastors please feel free to contact me if you have a patient at Wilson and can't get in to visit. Call me at 763-6003. Also, please remember to let admissions know what church and faith you are from. Currently, less than 20% of daily visits show what church or faith group they are visiting from. Thank you so much for your help in this matter.

- ◆ We are looking for Super Giant Print Bibles if you have any to donate.
- ◆ We are looking for a Chaplain Volunteer Visitor at Wilson.

Please know how grateful the patients are for our Chaplain volunteers. We currently need additional backup Chaplain volunteers.

Pastors and Congregations are asked to have a phone number that you can be reached at if there is an emergency. There are certain times when there is a medical emergency and a parishioner and or family just want their own Pastor. Our Chaplains do their best and are appreciated, but home Pastors, Priests, Rabbi's, and Imams are preferred. Many times these emergencies happen in the evenings, weekends, or at night.

Please remember, we have an All Faiths Worship Chapel on the 4th floor at Wilson and the 1st floor at Binghamton General.

- Chaplain John

Volunteer of the Month: Jamie Wu

Jamie has been volunteering in the CHOW warehouse since July. She volunteers regularly at various pantries throughout NY and had heard of us through, St. Paul's CHOW Pantry of Endicott.

While here, she has been a huge help with assisting on barrel pickups, food sorting and repacking. She is a pleasure to be around and always has a smile on her face.

Jamie is currently a senior at Cornell and has hopes of moving on to dentistry once she graduates.

Jamie will be greatly missed and the Council of Churches wishes her the best in reaching her future goals.

GOOD LUCK JAMIE!

Adult & Teen Challenge

MISSION STATEMENT

HOPE Adult and Teen Challenge (HOPE ATC)

HOPE accepts women into residential care to become disciples of Jesus Christ. For 18 months their former environment (PEOPLE, PLACES, and THINGS) is disrupted. Then they can be transformed so that peace and joy comes from righteousness, not from life-controlling problems such as substance use, action distractions, rational entanglements or imagination vanity.
